Welcome to Clydebank Town Hall

Clydebank Town Hall is an iconic B-listed building built in 1902 by Scottish architect James Miller who designed the building in true classical Italian renaissance style. Steeped in history, Clydebank Town Hall is a stylish and unique venue that provides the perfect setting to tie the knot.

Simple and stress free

At Clydebank Town Hall we appreciate how stressful it can be planning the most important day of your life, and choosing the venue that's right for you. That's why we like to make things simple.

When you choose Clydebank Town Hall you'll never be charged peak or weekend premiums, but what you will receive is a professional service and experienced in-house team that takes the stress away from you. Plus, we have no set packages or minimum number requirements - simply tell us what suits you.
